Zeljko Jandric is a Certified Associate with over 20 years of experience in business. Prior to joining Adizes South-east Europe in 2003, he was the CEO of NOVKABEL, a manufacturing company in Serbia.

Having held positions in engineering and sales, he commands a broad knowledge of industry which provides valuable insights when deploying the Adizes Methodology in a variety of settings.

As an Adizes Associate, he regularly presents and facilitates organizational change programs to Executives and CEO's throughout Serbia, Croatia, Bosnia, Montenegro, and the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia.

He specializes in restructuring growing and aging companies, accountability systems, and team integration for problem solving. His strength also lies in providing support in the areas of sales, policy development, software implementation, job description definition, and business processes improvement.

He graduated from the University of Novi Sad with a Bachelor's degree in Mechanics.

Presently, he is continuing his studies in transformational management and the Adizes Methodology through the Adizes Graduate School.

He is married with two sons and resides in Serbia.
