

Boris Vukic
Serbia

---

Argentina
Australia
Azerbaijan
Belarus
Bosnia-Herzegovina
Brazil
Canada
Croatia
Georgia
India
Israel
Kazakhstan
Latvia
Lithuania
Moldova
Mexico
Poland
Russia
Serbia
Slovenia
Thailand
Turkey
U.S.A.
Ukraine

Mr. Boris Vuki is the Co-founder and Partner of Adizes Southeast Europe. He is responsible for Adizes business development in this region. He regularly lectures and consults on the Adizes methodology in Southeast Europe.

Boris was first introduced to the Adizes Methodology in September of 1994. He was promptly trained and then Certified in Phases I, II, and III in February 1997. Over the past twenty years, Boris has provided services to over 100 companies. He specializes in integrating teams of key managers to solve organizational transformation problems.

He coaches owners and founders through the transition process from entrepreneurship to professional management and specializes in teaching the transfer of practical knowledge, tools and management wisdom to young professionals.

Boris has been the featured speaker and presenter at several conferences and is known for his convincing and engaging presentations. Boris is the editor of the Adizes SEE Newsletter and has edited numerous management books.

He has written more than twenty articles on organizational development and actively contributes to management periodicals in Serbia, Croatia and Bosnia and Herzegovina. He also wrote the forward in the Serbian editions of Dr. Adizes and Bo Jäghult books.

Boris lives with his wife and two children in Novi Sad, Serbia.