Marina studied Public Accounting at ITESO in Guadalajara, Jalisco from 2008-2012 taking an exchange to Paris, France in the summer of 2011.

After completing her bachelor's degree, Marina went to work for KPMG in the audit area, where she was the auditor-in-charge of international and national companies.

From KPMG, Marina went to El Jalisciense Promociones Inmobiliarias in charge of the finance area and at Hershey's as a cost accountant analyst until July of 2016, when she relocated to Mexico City to study.

Marina earned an MBA at IPADE Business School (2016-2018) followed by an internship at Richemont, a Swiss company with luxury brands like Cartier, Montblanc, Piaget, among others.

Marina studied an additional four months at a business school in Hamburg Germany working on an MBA.

Returning to Guadalajara in 2018, Marina worked at Hines, a real estate development, investment and operational company as an Associate (project manager).

Marina first learned of Adizes in 2018, and after some research, found it to be very aligned with her thinking and personal vocational goals.

Marina seeks to work with organizations where she has opportunities to positively impact society in some way.
