Yulia Krylenko is a certified Human Resources Professional with a wide experience in both multinational and local companies.

Yulia started her career in Human Resources in 1998 after she graduated from the State University of Management, Moscow, Russia.

Yulia made her career in HR from an assistant to the director position.

Yulia managed implementation of a wide range on projects in the Human Resources area connected with the increase of employees' engagement.

Yulia always keeps her focus on the personal and professional development. Her most important courses and certifications:

- 2009 Global Remuneration Professional, WorldatWork
- 2009 Global Professional in Human Resources, SHRM
- 2012 Hogan Assessment Systems, Certified Professional
- 2013 Leading Highly Effective Teams – Adizes Institute

Her first familiarity with Dr.Adizes methodology started from the transformation program in a Russian advertising group, her employer at that time.

That program coalesced all her managerial experience into one very comprehensive system that allows companies to be efficient and effective and manage their most key and valuable resource (people) in the most effective way.

The Adizes program showed that most HR tasks can be solved with the help of this unique methodology.

Yulia is married for more than 20 years and is raising a daughter.
